

There are no returns on any Commissions that are contracted with Quilts By Commission. Quilts By Commission can alter designs during the creating process of commissions, some changes are subject to extra charges and may go beyond the client's budget or initial estimate. Superior customer service during the creation of each commission ensures the client will get exactly what they've contracted.